I saw this game in my library and decided to download it and play it to see how it could lose to overwatch all those years ago. Now I can say. HOW?!?!?! Sure, there is not much to the name of multiplayer anymore since everyone else plays what is trending, but this is a genuinely fun game, even in single campaign/pvp. The wide array of characters and unlockables is awesome (I had the fully upgraded game before it went F2P), story is pretty interesting, and it's easy to lose track of time logging hours into this game. Really give this game a try, it's a whole lot of fun.. It came out in the shadow of Overwatch, but all-in-all it's an acceptable game.. It came out in the shadow of Overwatch, but all-in-all it's an acceptable game.. One of my favorite all time games! I really hope another one is made.. Battleborn merges cooperative and competitive, hero and shooter, loot and shoot into an excellent melting pot and symbol of the times. Charismatic characters, clever intricacies, and compelling gameplay make this one of the best multiplayer experiences of the generation yet. The game came out at the same time of Overwatch and never really caught on. It's a really fun game. If you get a couple of friends together you will have a blast. The game has bots to fill the servers when population is low.. Hang about?! So I bought the game, now FTP. and I need to buy it again?! This studio can suck my big hairy toe.. Right this is a game i'm sad to see die, I actually really enjoyed this over OVERWATCH because the story, charm and continuation of characters it offered was great. I was really sad to see it go under-developed and end up dying. I think they can revive it by going F2P or maybe reimagining it, but that is probably not going to happen. It had a unique class of characters that you normally wouldn't find anywhere and the story and dungeon style missions were very very fun. Unlocking the characters felt like you actually accomplished something and best of all the community isn't, or i'm sorry. Wasn't. As cancerous as OW. I don't regret the time I spent with this game.
